

YOU HAVE RIGHTS!

If a supervisor or other management representative requests an investigatory meeting with you and if you have reasonable cause to believe that such a meeting may result in disciplinary action, you have the right to representation. This is your "Weingarten right".

- Say: "If this discussion could in any way lead to my being disciplined or terminated, or affect my personal working conditions, I request that my steward or union officer be present at the meeting. "Without representation, I choose not to answer any questions."
